

AUTUMN FOUNTAIN SHOW 2019: THE STORY

This year traditional multimedia fountain show will be held at the Grand Cascade on September 20th and 21st, 2019. The Show starts at 9 PM. Viewers are allowed to the Lower park from 6 PM.

The show is dedicated to Catherine the Great, who reigned in Russia from 1762 to 1796. Peterhof was a kind of symbolic place for the Empress, which marked the crucial points in her life.

Multimedia performance entitled #EMPRESS2019 will tell the fascinating story of a small-town girl becoming a great empress and one of the most remarkable personalities in Russian history,

The Autumn Fountain Show is a modern high-tech show that features 3D mapping, holographic projections, powerful pyrotechnics, laser and light effects. It also immerses viewers into long-gone but still mesmerizing 18th century.

TICKETS FOR THE SHOW & CITY PARKING

Ticket price - 1000 Rubles.

Children of preschool age (up to 7 years) enjoy free admission to the Show if accompanied by adults having entrance tickets. The Show lasts 60 minutes and is not recommended for audience under 6 y.o. It's strictly recommended to purchase tickets only at official website tickets.peterhofmuseum.ru/en Peterhof State Museum-Reserve has no collaborations with any other sites.

Location: Peterhof, Lower park, the Grand Cascade.

On the days of the Show city parking is usually overcrowded. Please save the addresses of the paid parking in Peterhof (50 Rubles per 1 hour):

- junction of Eihenskaya & Prudovaya streets,
- junction of Prudovaya & Morskogo Desanta streets,
- Znamenskaya Street (to the east of the Peterhof stream).

FOUNTAINS & PARKS OPERATING ON SEPTEMBER 20-21, 2019

In view of the Autumn Fountain Show the following museums of Peterhof will be closed:

- the Grand Peterhof Palace (September 19-21),
- the Grottoes of the Grand Cascade (September 14-23).

The following museums of Peterhof will be closed earlier at 15:30 on September 20th and 21st:

- all museums of the Lower Park, incl. the Monplaisir Palace & the Hermitage Pavilion,
- the museums in the Grand Palace (Special Treasury, Church Pavilion, and the Museum of Fountain Crafts).

On September 20th & 21st the Lower Park will be open till 4 PM (last admission at 14:30), the Upper Garden will be open till 4 PM (last admission at 15:30). Viewers of the Show may enter the Lower park since 6 PM, all the fountains except those in the central part, will be switched on.

The following fountains of the Lower park will be switched off: the Grand Cascade (September 17-21), the Favourite (September 13-23), the Terrace fountains (September 15-23). The Samson fountain will be operating as usual.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT ON SEPTEMBER 20-21, 2019

The hydrofoil companies will be operating in the short-cut mode on September 20-21. One may arrive to Peterhof from St. Petersburg from 6 PM till 20:30.

The hydrofoils won't be operating after the Show.

For the late evening after the Show the city minibus transfers will be increased. One may take the city minibuses № 224, 300 or 424 from the Upper Garden to "Avtovo" metro station in St. Petersburg, as well as city minibuses № 103 or 420 to "Leninsky Prospekt" metro station in St. Petersburg.

The operating hours for the trains to St. Petersburg won't change either. One may take city bus № 356 or 351-A from the Upper Garden to the "New Peterhof" Station, from which it's 36 minutes till the Baltic Railway Station by train.

PETERHOF MUSEUM-RESERVE: PARKS & FOUNTAINS

Most people travelling to Peterhof plan to see the fountains - main information about the Lower Park with fountains is given on Page 2.

All 150 fountains of the Lower Park are on everyday from April 27th till October 13th, 2019 (P. 2) Before entering the Lower Park have a look at the Upper Garden. You'll be amazed by the oldest fountain "Neptune" and stunning view of the Grand Palace. The entrance to the Upper Garden is free.

There's a gorgeous Italian-style Kolonistsky Park with Islands and Tsarina's Pavilion opposite to the Upper Garden, 15 minutes walk from the Grand Palace (P.6)

15 minutes walk from the Lower Park is a former private emperor's estate of Alexandria (PP. 5-6) and if you head towards the city of Lomonosov after 30 minutes ride you'll enjoy the splendor of the 18th century authentic palace & park ensemble called Oranienbaum (PP. 7-8).

PALACES & MUSEUMS IN THE LOWER PARK

Do not limit yourself to watching only the fountains of the Lower Park. Visit various museums of Peterhof with historical artefacts and authentic interiors, most of which are open during the summer season only!

- Monplaisir Palace (open from May, 25th)
- Bathhouse Block of Monplaisir
- Aviaries (open from May, 25th)
- Grottoes of the Grand Cascade
- Imperial Yachts Museum (open from May, 25th)
- Hermitage Pavilion
- Marly Palace

GRAND PETERHOF PALACE & MUSEUMS NEXT TO IT

Core of the Peterhof ensemble is the Grand Palace which is overcrowded during the high season. To help the visitors get through the lines & to preserve the interiors the ticket sale sessions are embedded. These sessions divide the travel companies and agents from the individual visitors (P.2)

Sometimes visiting any of the lovely museums next to the Grand Palace brings more joy and knowledge than the tough visit to the Grand Palace itself:

- Special Treasury museum
- Royal Church of the Grand Peterhof Palace
- Museum of Fountain Crafts
- "The Court's Entertainments" Project
- Benois Family Museum
- Museum of Art Collectors
- Museum-theatre "House of Playing Cards"

TIPS ON GETTING TO PETERHOF

The fastest way to get to Peterhof is by hydrofoil, that crosses the Gulf of Finland. It takes 30 minutes to get from the Hermitage at the Palace Embankment in St.Petersburg to the Pier in Peterhof. The hydrofoil companies are not associated with Peterhof State Museum-Reserve and do not sell tickets to its facilities.

The most picturesque way to Peterhof is by train. It takes 36 minutes to get from the Baltic Railway Station to the "New Peterhof" Station. City buses № 356 or 351-A will bring you to the Upper Garden from the station in 15 minutes.

A common way to get to Peterhof is to take a city minibus № 224, 300 or 424 from "Avtovo" metro station. When there's no traffic they'll take you to the main entrance at the Upper Garden in 30-40 minutes.
